MISS BURFORD JOHNSON

Attractive Junior Student of O. H. S. to Preside as QUEEN Over Classalia

Miss Burford Johnson, pretty high school student, will be queen of the Classalia, the annual festival. The festival is held for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the souvenir edition of the Classicum.

Miss Johnson won the distinction of becoming queen of the festival by defeating three other exceedingly popular young ladies. They were Miss Ida Hansen, sophomore; Miss Cecil Bramwell, senior, and Miss Ruth Fingree, freshman. Miss Johnson is a member of the junior class.

The campaign was one of the most enthusiastic ever staged by the student body in selecting their queen. Each class was organized and electioneering of the old-fashioned sort was in progress throughout the period preceding the election. The returns were received last night at a dancing party and the identity of the victorious Miss Johnson announced.

FROM CAMP LEWIS.

Sergeant Jean Case is home from Camp Lewis, Wash., for a week's visit with relatives and friends. He reports that everything at the training camp is in good condition and says no finer set of men can be found in the country than those at Camp Lewis. They are well-trained and enthusiastic, and eagerly await the call to active service. Sergeant Case leaves Monday for his post.

MRS. PETERSON HOSTESS.

Mrs. N. E. Peterson entertained 25 guests at her home, 2650 Madison avenue, last Thursday evening, her husband's birthday being the occasion which called forth a delightful time. Carnations and roses decorated the rooms while the table was beautiful with a large centerpiece of sweet peas. Music, games and readings were enjoyed until a late hour.

MEMBERS OF PRIMARY STAKE BOARD HONORED.

Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Kate B. Campbell on Twenty-second street, North Weber stake primary board assembled to do honor to four of their most earnest workers. The party was a complete surprise to the four members. Misses Thelma Witherspoon, Florence Powell, Esther Shurtliff and Ethel Sisman. Their former president, Helen Reese Fife, was present and in a most capable manner read some beautiful thoughts and poems appropriate for each member of her own company. President Minnie C. Stratford with a few well chosen words, presented each member with a beautiful cut glass bon bon dish as a token of esteem in which they were held by the stake board workers. Counselors Kate B. Campbell and Elizabeth H. Wilson also read beautiful thoughts and presented each with a copy. Each member responded with a dainty little speech as to their appreciation after a very dainty repast, each one departed, having spent a most enjoyable evening. The North Weber stake primary board is a very united and diligent set of workers and often enjoy an evening of entertainment together.

Those present were President James Witherspoon and Con. Frances W. Stratford of the presidency; Helen R. Fife, former president; Annie Z. Fingree of Salt Lake, a former worker; President Minnie C. Stratford, Counselors Kate B. Campbell and Elizabeth H. Wilson, Mrs. Mamie Evans, Lottie Ellis, Miss Florence Powell, Glenna Witherspoon, Ethel Sisman, Esther Shurtliff, June Campbell and Marjorie Ellis.

MARRIED IN SALT LAKE TEMPLE.
Last Wednesday morning in the Salt Lake temple Miss Emma Barlow, daughter of Mrs. J. M. Barlow of Salt Lake City, formerly of Ogden, and Walter W. Fife of Sandusky, Mont., and also a former Ogdenite, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. In the evening a reception was held.

TREMONTON

Miss Myrtle Andrew of Redwood Falls, Minn., will spend the summer here with her sister, Mrs. H. J. Davis.

Miss Audrey Murphy is visiting relatives in Corinne.

M. C. Taylor is in Ogden where he will spend a week or two attending to business matters.

D. A. Dalton is in Ogden and Salt Lake attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Davis have had for their guest, Mrs. Davis, mother of Mrs. T. A. Davis of Malad City, Idaho.

at the home of the bride's brother and sister, 1364 Westminster avenue, Salt Lake City. The home was exceptionally attractive with tall crystal vases of pink and white snapdragons prettily placed throughout the living room and in the dining room, where tempting refreshments were served during the evening.

The dining table was very pretty with an ivory enameled basket tied with a pink mallow bow and filled with pink and white carnations as the centerpiece, while the candies and ices were in the pink colors to carry out the scheme perfectly.

In the living room the bride and groom received their many friends. The bride was attractive in a dainty gown of pale blue crepe de chine and she carried a lovely bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern.

Those who assisted in the dining room during the evening were Mrs. Vera Jones and Mrs. J. M. Barlow, while Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay, Mrs. J. Francis Fowles and Mrs. Jane Barlow received the guests with the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Fife will make their home in Sandusky, Mont., where the groom is in business. They will be at home to their friends in the northern city after April 1.

LYNNE WARD CHOR ENTERTAINMENT.

Several hundred members of the Lynne ward and their friends attended the program given last Tuesday evening when the choir of the ward furnished a splendid number of selections and two ladies of the ward gave recitations.

The program in its entirety follows: Choir Vocal solo ..... Charles Price

Following the rendition of the program an orchestra furnished music and dancing and refreshments were enjoyed during the remainder of the evening.

WED IN OGDEN.

Last Tuesday Miss Cora Clark Emerson and C. R. Green of Salt Lake City were married in this city, leaving immediately for Salt Lake City, where they are spending a few days at the Hotel Utah, before leaving for an extended honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast.

QUINCY SCHOOL IS NOT SANITARY

A committee of citizens from the Quincy school district met last night with the school board and presented a petition, calling for immediate attention at the Quincy school. The school is unsanitary and unsafe, according to the petition, and a menace to the lives of the children of the district. The committee requested that the board take steps to remedy the alleged condition by partially remodeling the building. Reconstructions of the lavatories and fire safeguards were urged by the committee.

Alfred J. Burdette was spokesman of the committee. The board decided to visit the school in company with the school architect and see what will have to be done.

The bonds of J. R. Hinchelliffe, treasurer, and Miss Bessie McCready, clerk, were allowed at the meeting.

BATTERY B WILL RECEIVE A CHECK

Battery B of the 145th Utah light field artillery will receive a check for $86 within a few days as the final installment of the benefit funds raised for the battery through the presentation of a show some weeks ago in the Orpheum theater. This final installment has been held up because returns had not been received from several ticket sales.

The check was mailed yesterday to Lieut. A. E. Wilfong by Chairman D. N. Wheeler of the show committee with a letter explaining the delay and wishing the Ogden soldiers the best success. The letter was signed by the entire committee, Wheeler, W. E. Zuppann and A. T. Greenwell.

STATE LIBRARY ORGANIZER HERE

Miss Mary E. Downey, state library organizer, is hopeful of transforming Carnegie library, Ogden, into a county library. She thinks perhaps, if the plan is developed, it will require assistance from the state legislature.

Miss Downey declared that the Ogden library is increasing its patronage in most satisfactory manner. She cited the fact that the number of books distributed last month totaled 1500 more than the circulation in February last year. She is directing her efforts toward establishing a tax-supported library in every city of more than 1000 population in the state.

Supt. W. N. Peterson, of the Weber county public schools, will accompany Miss Downey on a lecturing trip through this section.

WICHITA, Kan., March 8.—Frank Isbell, manager of the local Western league baseball club, announced today that he had signed Pitcher Edward Hovick and Shortstop Jim Galloway of the Vernon, Cal., club.

Historical Society.

At the last meeting of the Historical society, the program was in charge of Mrs. Otis Weeks, who very ably presented the topic, "America's Contribution to the Short Story," outlining the development of the short story from the legends and narratives of Washington Irving to the productions of the present day, reading brief sketches from different authors, the members being particularly interested in her reading of "The Gift of the Magi" (O. Henry). The discussion was led by Mrs. Florence Newcomb. Two vocal selections were given by Mrs. Agnes Warner and the club members and their guests joined in the singing of several patriotic songs, led by Mrs. Warner. The day being unusually pleasant and the attendance large, the social hour, during which refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. S. S. Smith and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, was most enjoyable.

Home Culture Club.

The Home Culture club was entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Moore, Thursday, March 7. After an interesting business session the following program was given:

Yellowstone National Park, Glacier National Park, Rocky Mountain National Park, Mrs. Robert Agee.
Yosemite National Park, Sequoia National Park, Mrs. John Hobbs.

A lively discussion of the papers and each club member felt she had not only learned a great deal of our national wonders, but would surely like to spend her summer visiting at least one of these remarkable parks.

March 21 the club members will meet at the downtown Red Cross rooms.
